

First Coast Manufacturers Association Continuous Improvement / Lean Thinking Webinar— How To Accelerate Your Recovery From COVID-19

Objective of Webinar:

- How to accelerate your recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Communicating concepts and substantial value that the continuous improvement/lean thinking journey can have on your business.
- Understanding the challenges of leading and sustaining a continuous improvement/lean thinking program.
- Looking ahead—how can FCMA and the Lean Consortium help your business going forward?

Target Participants:

- Decision makers (executives/VP's/Directors/Plant Managers/Managers) and continuous improvement/lean thinking experts.

Webinar Content:

- The value of initiating and sustaining the continuous improvement/lean thinking journey.
- The challenge of leading a continuous improvement/lean thinking initiative—leadership commitment for the long-term.
- Basic introduction to the world of continuous improvement/lean thinking--overview of concepts, methodologies and tools.
- Examples of continuous improvement/lean thinking programs and training available now and in the future.
- Program budgeting recommendations.
- Announcing a proposed program for fall 2020.
- Soliciting feedback, suggestions, needs and interests from participants.

Moderator: Mike Templeton for FCMA

Presenters: Jerry Bussell, Chairman and James Bussell, Executive Director, of the Jacksonville Lean Consortium

When: Thursday, June 11, 2020, 7:30 AM – 9:30 AM

Free Webinar Info: Webinar via Zoom. RSVP for log-in information.

RSVP: Email to amanda@fcmaweb.com

1615 Huffingham Road, Suite 2, Jacksonville, FL 32216
904-296-9664, www.FCMaWeb.com